Children of Promise

Children of promise and children of light
Come now before us with hope shining bright;
We will walk with them in laughter and tears,
Blessing their dreaming and calming their fears.

Wisdom and justice, compassion and grace,
May they be what children learn in this place.
May they grow rich in their heart, soul and mind,
Growing in faith in God's own holy time.

Children of wonder and children of trust;
May we hold gently this gift given us.
May all God's children, the young and the grown
Find their own place in God's heart, their true home.
